

!We Want Your (shite) Design!

“No one is immune to failure. You might be brilliant and successful, beautiful and talented, but no one can placate the gods of success for ever”

YOUR TASK:

Submit a mistake, the bit that went wrong, a piece of shite design 😊!

We know there's something there in the depths of your sketchbooks from projects' past you'd rather keep hidden. Lets give that part of ourselves the time to shine.

What we're saying is that it's human to f*ck up. All that 'rubbish' is actually integral to the creative process, guiding the way to the amazing work we do produce, so why aren't we celebrating it more?!

So come on, dig up some of your worst kerning, a drawing of a beloved pet that maybe ended up resembling something worthy of satanic worship or a bad use of ironic comic sans and we'll raise a glass in honor of the beauty in shite design together.

We will accept submissions in jpeg, png and pdf formats.

Please send your submissions to our email along with your instagram info so we can credit your work,

HAVE FUN!!!
